ALL SAINTS' CHURCH WEST ILSLEY

July at All Saints' Church

As you will have seen from the Government's guidelines, churches are now permitted to open for services as well as private prayer from 4th July. However, as we are still waiting for details from the Government and from the national church, it may well take a little time for services to be up and running again, to ensure everyone's safety. Until that time All Saints' will continue to open on Sundays for private prayer between 9.30am and 6.00pm. We do ask that you will stick to the regulations of hand sanitising and keeping a distance from others. There are still services taking place from clergy homes and recorded services from some of our churches in which you can take part (see below). The church continues to be alive and active. Our worship of God and our care for each other both continue in the community.

East Downland Benefice Website

Do look at the website at www.eastdownland.org.uk for online services, including ones taken by our own Rector Revd John Toogood, which you can listen to at any time. Sunday services are available to watch from 8.30am on the day. You can see our regular Weekly Sheet, as well as the Benefice Magazine that comes out monthly and lots more. You can also follow our church and benefice Facebook pages.

Other Websites

There are links to services and prayers on the Oxford Diocese website at: <https://www.oxford.anglican.org/> as well as other resources and information. The Oxford Diocese also offers services by telephone, for those without the internet. These can be found on 01865 920930 and once connected, dial 0 for the full version of the service, or dial 1 for a short version. However - PLEASE NOTE - this line is not free, standard call rates apply.

In addition, there is a free Daily Hope telephone line which offers music, prayers and reflections from the Church of England. This line is available 24 hours a day on 0800 804 8044. There is also plenty of information on the Church of England website at: <https://www.churchofengland.org/>
