BRENDA LEVICK RIP:

Brenda had lived in Kirton, on Sandfield Lane since the 1960s, and was well known for breeding and showing her wonderful Irish Setters, many of which, became show champions- in fact, her magnificent homebred Corriecas Fagan, won Best Reserve in Show at Crufts in 1983. She became an International dog show judge, and travelled widely in this pursuit. Brenda supported Church events, and was often seen at the coffee mornings in the village. Sadly, she became unwell last year, and was moved into a nursing home at Gainsborough, where she suffered a massive stroke in February this year. Her funeral was held at Kirton Church on Friday, February 16th, where many people paid their last respects. She was buried in the village churchyard. Our sympathies go to her daughter, Gail, her son, Adrian, and their families. God Bless Brenda!
