DEAR READERS ...

Welcome to our Summer edition, we hope you enjoy reading it and that you enjoy the wonderful events planned in our villages over the coming months. We would like to say a huge “thank you” to Liz Gibson for organising and running the recent refreshments weekend at Upper Slaughter to raise funds for our magazine, and to all who helped, provided cakes and supported the event from across the Benefice. With £573 raised, this was a marvellous result and very much appreciated.

DEAR FRIENDS ...

We have two great pieces of news to share with you from life around our Benefice:

Temple Guiting Church of England School have recently had their ‘Church School’ Inspection (SIAMS). The Inspector has written a very positive report and has concluded that we are Good in each area she inspected. She summed up our School saying, “Temple Guiting is ‘thriving’ as a learning community built on love”. Do go to the school website to see the full report – www.templeguiting.gloucs.sch.uk

In late June this year, our ministry team here will be joined by Rev’d Sue Pestell. Sue will be a Curate working across our Benefice for the next 3-5 years. Here are some words from Sue introducing herself:

“My name is Sue Pestell and I’m delighted to be serving my curacy among you in the Benefice of Seven Churches. I currently live in Winchcombe with my husband Rob, who is a Hospice Chaplain, and our youngest son James. We have two other children - Jonathan who is married to Zoë, and Andrew, married to Vikki. We also have three grandchildren.

I have spent the last three years in theological training on a regional course based in Gloucester, an experience I have enjoyed very much. One of the lovely parts of it was doing a ministerial placement alongside Katrina in your Benefice. Other things that I enjoy are being with people, historic buildings, a bit of walking, Sudoku, the sea, and cake. And of course the family.

I look forward to joining you in July.”

Please do come along and support Sue at her Ordination at Gloucester Cathedral on 30 June at 10.15am and welcome her at our Benefice Welcome Service at Temple Guiting at 6pm on Sunday 7th July!

Katrina, Sue, Jean and David

NEWS FROM THE WIDER CHURCH ...

A Prayer for Health

Here is a lovely prayer to use when you are thinking of a loved one who is going through a time of ill health:

*God of compassion and love,
we hold before you all those who suffer and those who care for them.
We pray especially at this time for those we love who are in pain.
Hold them in your strength and with your peace.
Bring them comfort and healing.
May they know your joy and your light.
Amen.*

Please do remember in your prayers Sue Cox, David Quin, Jean Bird and John Stanley, members of our Ministry Team here who are struggling with their health at the moment.

What is a Curacy?

Since we have announced that our Benefice will be celebrating the arrival of Rev'd Sue Pestell as a curate at the end of June, a number of people have asked me the question – "what does that really mean?"

A curate is a newly ordained person who comes to a group of parishes as a training post. It's a bit like an apprenticeship, where a curate comes to learn on the job. Sue will be a Reverend following her ordination at Gloucester Cathedral on 30th June, and for her first year works as a Deacon, before being made a Priest next year.

She will be working across the Benefice, sharing in ministry with Katrina. Please do introduce yourself to her and invite her to get involved in events happening in our communities.

NEWS FROM THE PEWS ...

Temple Guiting

How lovely it is to see the trees in full blossom and the lovely young green leaves, and how amazing the sunshine has been so early in the year.

A large number of people crowded into the village hall for Party Pieces and had marvellous entertainment from the school children and adults. It's surprising what unknown talent there is in the village! Michael Bochman was an excellent compere and we all enjoyed the jacket potatoes for supper.

Easter was a beautiful occasion with the services well attended and the Church looking beautiful with all the Spring flowers. Now let's look forward to a lovely warm and happy Summer.

Audrey Mather

Naunton

Once again St Andrew's celebrated Easter with a family gathering on Good Friday during which as well as a short service, the children created an Easter garden and made various Easter themed items such as crosses and donkeys before finally joining in an Easter Egg hunt around the churchyard and then on Easter Day there was Holy Communion with Hymns. As this piece was being written plans were afoot for Ascension Day when St Andrew's was to be the venue for a Benefice celebration of Praise, Puddings and Prosecco - a first for Naunton - but otherwise the normal pattern of services is continuing, as is the weekly coffee shop and the monthly (except for August) rural cinema showings.

By the time you are reading this St Andrew's will have hosted the first of this year's Naunton Music concerts with more scheduled for June, July and September. And preparations will be in hand for the annual Spirit of Naunton service which once again, thanks to publican Jo Archer, is to be held in The Black Horse, this year on 16th June.

Events in and associated with the church are publicised in the village but if you want to know about future Naunton Music concerts or film showings, please contact Barbara Steiner for concerts and Bob Steiner for the cinema, both on 01451 850897.

Guiting Power

Easter Day "Sunrise Service" was a charismatic event, it was warm, not a breath of wind, and right on time just as Rev Katrina started The Eucharist, the sun broke over the hillsides! A good group of 25 hardy souls appeared for the 6am service in the Church Yard and afterwards we all enjoyed fellowship, tea, coffee and bacon and sausage sandwiches with Mrs Watson's crusty bread - what a way to celebrate Easter Day!

The Bric a Brac sale in the Churchyard and Teas in the Church on Easter Monday went well, raising approximately £380 for Church and Parish Share Funds. Thanks to all that donated books and bric a brac, what a great help this is in finding the money to keep the doors of St Michael's open. If you want to donate any bric a brac or books from around the parishes, contact Mike on 07786 483114.

We are all so pleased that Church Stalwart Peter Weale has had his long awaited operation and is feeling much better. Peter and his wife Pat have played such a significant role in the running of St Michael's in recent years.

Our best wishes go out to our Church Warden Emeritus, Mrs Dorothy Watson, as she struggles with diminishing sight and some minor ailments. What a doughty competitor she is in life, never giving way to anything or anyone! The whole village is preparing to celebrate Dorothy's 100th birthday in November 2019.

We hope that fine weather blesses the two walks from Lower Slaughter and Farmcote to Guiting Power on Rogation Sunday May 26th. Great thanks from the benefice to Nick Bumford and his staff at Guiting Manor Farms for once again facilitating the atmospheric "Barn Service" afterwards.

Looks like you have the same old team running St Michael's and All Angels for the next year, all returned again for another term at the Church AGM! We have an excellent team in place, but don't be too complacent as we are an ageing group! As most Churches do, we need an injection of younger blood.

Mike Edwards

Although Lent is some time ago now it was good to have so many people join together for the soup lunches. Thank you for supporting this and for the donations which go to the Food Bank.

We also thank those who helped decorate the church ready for Easter, when the sun shone and the church was full.

Do join us on 30th June, for the evensong service to celebrate St Peter's day, everyone will be most welcome.

Our Fete this year is on 13th July, and we thank James for bringing this altogether again this year.

Liz Gibson

Cutsdean

I am writing this on the very last day of April – it being not only the deadline for this edition of our much loved Benefice magazine but also the final day of the "Customer Vote" for our grant from the Tesco Bags of Help Scheme. Thank you to all who took the trouble to collect the tokens and vote accordingly. From early on it was clear which project was in line for the main prize – the Stow Poppy Factory of the Royal British Legion, but the race for second place was much closer between St. James' and Sherborne Primary School.

The highlight of our early spring was the visit by the Archdeacon of Cheltenham, the Venerable Phil Andrew, who joined us for a benefice Family Worship for Mothering Sunday. A congregation of around 30 from across the parishes heard an inspiring sermon from Phil preceded by a display of the headgear he collects on his travels encouraging us to identify the origins.

As we move into Spring, we have a fine crop of lambs in the field behind the Church to remind us of God's influence in the constant new beginnings that transcend the farming year and into our gardens. It is also the time when the rotas for keeping our church flourishing come into play and thanks are due to all those from Cutsdean and beyond who make St. James' so welcoming for everyone.

Mark Evans

Lower Slaughter

As you read this hopefully summer will have arrived, bringing long, sunny days.

At St Mary's we all enjoyed our Easter celebrations and meeting with our Benefice church family for Lent lunches, talks and services. How uplifting to spirits it was to open the door on Easter Sunday and see the Church ablaze with springtime colours from our floral displays.

Our Annual Parochial Church Meeting has taken place and we are very sad that Roger Baggott has stood down as Churchwarden and Treasurer due to his and Diane's forthcoming move to pastures new. We thank them very much for the stalwart work they have done for St Mary's over the last 10 years, and for the numerous hours Roger has devoted to keeping our finances in good order and our Church well maintained. May God bless them both with health and happiness in their new chapter of life and we hope they will join us occasionally in worship.

Recently our village was used to film scenes for "Emma" and our Church provided refuge for cast and crew. We all eagerly await the release of the film.

Plans are well underway for our Village Fete on August Bank Holiday Monday. Do join us as it is always a fun-filled day with traditional stalls, entertainment and refreshments.

Soon schools will be breaking up and the holiday season will be in full swing. We wish everyone "Happy Holidays" and the children a time of many adventures.

Marion Marshall

Farmcote

This year we celebrated a family Easter Service in a huge late Victorian church in Hackney where our son John and family had been warmly welcomed on return from Brazil last autumn. In east London the Church has staged a remarkable revival with many large congregations in refurbished buildings. Before the Service we were introduced to several 'professional' people with children; among the people of mixed race and backgrounds even Spanish was spoken. The congregation must have numbered +150. The traditional Eucharist, taken in modern language, was interspaced with pleasant live music from several musicians (singers, guitarists, drums, oboe and keyboard) and easy singing along from words on a large screen. The children ran around tugging at microphone and lighting wiring. We were addressed at the beginning by the Vicar with the Happy Message, and in the middle and end of the Service by several others in a more 'charismatic' manner. [On a normal Sunday there were two services – one for the older members, a traditional HC and another the same, but with music etc.] This new experience for us lasted an hour and a half followed by coffee and cakes prepared at the rear of the building. The separate meeting rooms there were well laid out and provided a popular meeting place designed for a largely young community and certainly not for a dying institution.

Temple Guiting School

Temple Guiting's got Talent! A few of our very keen Year 6 children decided to organise a talent show as they felt we had a lot of talent in the school. They organised 3 lunchtime audition sessions and then the organising committee of 6 pupils put 10 acts through to the finals. Encouraging feedback and a certificate for all the acts were given and the talent show organised with parents invited to the Village Hall along with the whole school one Friday afternoon. There were a variety of acts ranging from amazing gymnastic routines to a Michel Jackson style dance act, solo singing to dramatic book reading. The final winner was a Year 6 comedian, who not only performed a stand-up routine but also wrote a comedy song and played the piano while singing. It was a very noisy and enjoyable afternoon and we recommend you watch out for some of our pupils in the future, there is definitely a lot of talent in Temple Guiting! There are lots of pictures on our twitter feed if you want to check it out @TempleGSchool.

The daily mile has recommenced. Once again we are so very thankful for the incredibly beautiful surroundings we are blessed with at the school. This is often most apparent, when first thing in the morning, most of the school and as many staff as possible do our morning walk. If we do 3 times around the edge of the recreation field it is a mile. Some of us run, some of us walk, some parents and even a few dogs join us. It is a wonderful way to start the day and helps us have a healthy body as well as healthy minds

Easter Experience On a very wet and windy April day we had the privilege of once again taking part in the Easter Experience led by Vicar Katrina and Nick Scott. It was a 2-hour, completely interactive programme that engaged our pupils from the youngest four year olds to our Year 6 pupils, for whom the Easter experience workshops have become a very much loved tradition. There were videos, crafts, drama, discussion, Bible readings, dressing up and of course trying unleavened bread. It was fantastic morning that really did bring the story of Easter to life.

Lent Lunches donate to the Foodbank

During the season of Lent this year, our church communities gathered together for some lovely lunches on a weekly basis. It was a great opportunity to meet with friends and enjoy some homemade soups. Donations were made to cover the costs and to support those who are hungry in our area. We are delighted to report that we have been able to send a donation of £210 to the North Cotswold Foodbank.

Local charity Cotswold Friends is delighted to announce the addition of a Wheelchair Accessible Vehicle to its Community Transport Service. This service is much needed in the North Cotswolds and will provide wheelchair users with access to safe, reliable transport.
