This monthly newsletter aims to bring you news of Police activity in your local area, including Crime Alerts, positive action that has been taken by the Police, future public meetings and events that the team are hoping to attend and useful information, such as crime prevention advice. We hope it is of use and would like to hear from you if you have any ideas on what to include or how we can improve this publication. We look forward to hearing from you, the team email is the best point of contact.

Sign up to Neighbourhood Matters ... your brand new community messaging service

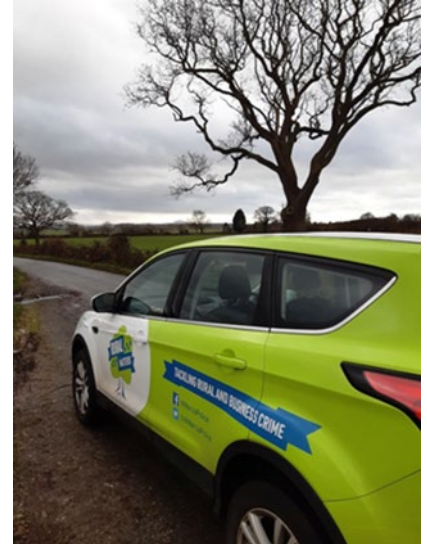

Neighbourhood Matters enables residents, businesses and community groups to keep in touch with local policing teams. You can choose exactly what type of alert you wish to receive and how you receive them; whether that be by email, text or telephone. Sign up now at: www.neighbourhoodmatters.co.uk

Rural and Business Crime Team.

West Mercia Police has a Rural and Business Crime Team who specialise in all aspects of Rural Crime, Wildlife Crime, Business Crime and Heritage Crime. Working in partnership with other specialist units in the force and partner agencies they are able to provide crime prevention advice and actively target those involved in rural and business crime in Shropshire. The team was involved in the recovery of the two quad bikes mentioned above and have also been targeting poachers on fields around the area. You can follow the team on Twitter and Facebook.

Young Cadets. Year 6 cadets at St. Leonards school had a passing out parade which was held in the assembly. Each of them were issued with a certificate by Pc Loftus and Pcsos Helen Oakley and Mandy Leek.

Neighbourhood week of action.

The Bridgnorth team along with colleagues from Wenlock and Broseley, Shifnal and Albrighton, Cleobury and Highley, Force specials and our LPP team have been visiting addresses around the area giving out smart water and signing people up to Neighbourhood matters which is the force messaging service.

Dates for your diary.

13th Feb – Armed forces outreach – Bridgnorth library.

As part of our partnership working we attend the armed Forces Outreach meeting in Bridgnorth library which takes place once a month. This meeting aims to assist former armed forces personnel in Shropshire.

Pcsos Stephen Dunn-Brown and Mandy Leek attended the Bridgnorth cubs to speak about keeping themselves safe in the community. They were all given reflective arm bands and reflective smiley faces to put on their bags.

1st March – Rural crime event – Shrewsbury Football ground 12:30 – 16:00 – all welcome.
