CUDDSDON AND DENTON COMMUNITY ORCHARD

By the time you read this, we hope that the Parish Council will have signed a 50 year lease for the land below the recreation ground to establish a community orchard for the village. A huge step forward.

A big thank you to Richard Farrant and Susan Jupp who own the land and have agreed to lease it for an annual rent of one apple. And another big thank you to our District Councillor, Sam James-Lawrie, who has helped massively with a grant from SODC for half of the solicitor's fees.

We've submitted a bid to the Trust for Oxfordshire's Environment (TOE) to pay for many more trees as well as the equipment we need to look after them. We hope to hear before Christmas.

In the meantime, we're very grateful to those in the village who have donated trees. We'll be planting these soon when the weather's right. You're all invited. Keep your eye on the village WhatsApp group for more details.

If you'd like to donate a tree to the project, simply as a gift or as a memorial, please do. We'd love to hear from you. Get in touch with Ron Stern or Nicko King for details of how it would work.

FROM THE VICAR

Dear friends

I'm writing this in mid-November – but very conscious that it will be December, and Advent, by the time you read it. I was commenting to friends this evening that I dislike November, when the days are so short and it gets dark so early, but I always feel better once Advent/December starts, with the excitement of carol services, Christmas lunches, parties, concerts, and the countdown to Christmas.

I'm looking forward to Advent and Christmas this year. It's always an exciting time of year. And I hope to see you at some of our services and events during December and January.

Of course, this year, most of us will be mindful of the situation in Gaza, the West Bank, Lebanon and the Middle East, and our Christmas joy will be tempered by grief and sadness over the destruction of lives, homes, hospitals, schools, and businesses in the land where our Saviour was born, and where he exercised much of his healing and teaching ministry.

In August, I attended the Greenbelt festival, near Kettering. At the main Communion Service on the Sunday morning, there was a live link to the Tent of Nations – a Christian-run farm, and peace-making project, in the hills near Bethlehem; and members of the community there joined us for worship.

At the beginning of the service, we were all invited to pick up our bags, chairs and other belongings and relocate to another area of the large field in front of the main stage – a symbolic action reminding us of all the Palestinian people forced, by conflict, to flee their homes and become refugees. Locally baked loaves of bread, in paper bags, were then thrown into the congregation – much as food is distributed from lorries and vans in many conflict zones – and we were encouraged to throw the loaves of bread to those behind us in the crowd, trusting that the communion bread we passed on to other groups would be broken and shared, so that none went without.

We were encouraged to share our bread like those who are still searching for a safe home.

And then, during the service, we sang this adapted version of the Christmas carol, O Little Town of Bethlehem:

1.O little town of Bethlehem
How still we see thee lie
Beyond thy bleak and dreamless
sleep
The deathly comets fly
And in your torn streets, haunted
By visions of the dead,
The walls don't shield and can't rebuild
A house of broken bread

2.O mourning souls, together
We feel the shining pain
A sacred light that's seeping out,
Tracing the next bloodstain
For light burns bright in darkness
And in this world of sin
Amidst the tears, the cracks and fears
Are how the light gets in

3.How vulnerably, how painfully
Your mothers now give birth,
As Ramah weeps and Rachel breaks
Her body on the earth
No ear may hear her sorrow
But in that deep release
A requiem of beauty still
Whispers its song of peace

4.O suffering child of Bethlehem
Whose wounds are always fresh
As love weeps from your ragged
skin
And hope is housed in flesh
A newborn birthing all things new
When brokenness you rend
Where ruins stand and tears are stopped
And death is not the end.

This December, as we celebrate Advent and Christmas, let's not forget the agony and pain of so many people in the land where Jesus was born.

God bless, and love and prayers

from the Vicar x

PARISH COUNCIL

There is good news regarding the Community Orchard: £1,500 of grant funding has been approved from the District Council's Community Grant. This will go towards legal costs for the lease agreement, which is now ready to be signed by the Parish Council.

The District Council has been asked to advise on the purchase of CCTV cameras and to say what their recommended policies are.

There will be a Christmas Tree as usual on Cuddesdon Green this year and the Carols Round the Tree will be held on 22nd December at 5.00pm, with mulled wine and mince pies provided.

The Parish Council would like to thank all those who helped with Bonfire Night and made it such a great success.

The Clerk has become a Superuser on FixMyStreet, which is the website for reporting highways problems to the County Council. This means she should have greater influence in getting road repairs done and she is going to report all the existing potholes.

Dee Corney
Parish Clerk

CAROLS AROUND THE CHRISTMAS TREE

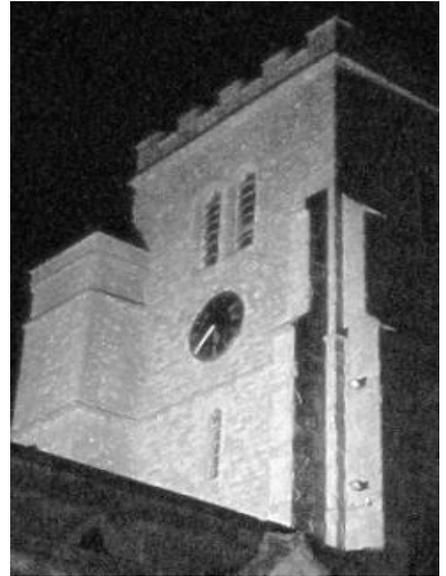

The annual Carols Around the Christmas Tree will be at 5.00pm on Sunday 22nd December

Mince pies and mulled wine will be provided to keep you warm while you sing.

Everyone is welcome

LIGHTING THE CHURCH TOWER

Autumn has slipped into winter; the evenings are dark and this is the moment when annually we appeal for funds to light up the tower of the church. Very many thanks to those who have sponsored the tower light in past years and I am sure there are many of us who appreciate its solid, lit-up presence in the dark nights of winter. This is an invitation to bring light to the village again this Christmas.

Celebrate a birthday or anniversary or the memory of a loved one. And if you feel that £10 a night is just too much, then give what you can afford.

Would anyone like to sponsor lighting of the tower over the Christmas period? Donations have enabled it to be lit up continuously for two or three months in recent winters and it would be good to repeat that this year. We suggest £40 for a week's illumination and £10 for a single night.

The easiest way to contribute is by bank transfer:

Account name: All Saints Parochial Church Council Cuddesdon

Account number: 30368024

Sort code: 20-65-21

If you donate by bank transfer, please send me an email to let me know your donation so that I can ensure that the light is kept on for the sponsored time. Otherwise, I am happy to receive a cheque made payable to All Saints PCC, or cash.

Happy Advent and Christmas!

Robert Wilson

FROM THE PARISH COUNCIL CHAIRMAN

Dear Parishioners,

It's nearly Christmas and I have so many people to thank for helping us get to the 'season of good will' largely unscathed. While we brace ourselves for the many expectations of Yuletide, a warm heart is free and I hope that everyone in this parish enjoys the holiday season.

First up I'd like to thank our Vicar Karen for organising our Services of Remembrance throughout her three Parishes and to Bishop Humphrey for leading our Act of Remembrance on Cuddesdon Green. With so many conflicts ongoing, Humphrey delivered an especially poignant message before we honoured the fallen from the village and the College. We will remember them.

A week earlier was Bonfire Night and I hope all those who came enjoyed the night. I have an army of people to thank for making it possible and apologies to any pets that had a rough evening, though my fellow councillor Philip says the fireworks display itself was only 10 minutes long, so I hope not too much angst.

A massive thank you to everyone including – Salt, Graham, Brownie, Tash, Jez, Izzie, Wills, Louisa, Therese, Philip, Stuart, Caroline, Linda, Richard, Dee, Mobbs, Cricks and Fantastic Fireworks. Lastly I want to thank Ben and the Bat & Ball for supplying beer and the Friends of All Saints for the wine. Village events are very special and they are not possible without all this effort from amazing people. You are all absolute legends!!

I wish the Bat & Ball massive luck for the winter season. It means a lot to all of us to see it re-opening. And thank you to David Keene for agreeing to organise the village Christmas tree again. We'll be singing carols around it at 5pm on Sunday 22nd December and there's a Carol Concert in the church straight afterwards at 6pm. Perfect combo.

Finally, I was asked what 'Ohana' meant recently and it's a fair question since I only ever explained this leftfield 'sign-off' once and that's a few years ago.

It's from a children's cartoon called Lilo and Stitch: "Ohana means family and family means no one gets left behind".

Happy Christmas all.
Ohana,

Chris

FRIENDS OF ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Fundraising to restore the Church lychgate

You might not know that the beautiful church in Cuddesdon is a Grade I listed building. It was built in 1180 over the foundations of an earlier 12th-century church, and it has very much looked the way it does today since the 13th century with some small, later additions in the 14th and 15th centuries.

The Friends of All Saints Church (FOASC) is a local community group looking to ensure that this community asset survives to serve the community for the next thousand years. We're keen to ensure that the church remains a place to be enjoyed by, and at the heart of, the parish.

Our first project aims to raise £25k to repair the lychgate, which sits at the entrance to the churchyard. It is in urgent need of restoration, and we need your help!

Cuddesdon held another wonderful bonfire night, made possible by volunteers from ours and local villages, who organised outstanding food, drinks (kindly supplied by the Bat & Ball), and fireworks. All funds raised from the drinks were generously donated to the FOASC lychgate fund.

If you would like to contribute, donations are gratefully received, but you can also help by getting involved with one of our events or social occasions. Find out more about becoming a Friend of All Saints Church at: <https://tinyurl.com/mrzce3jy>
