Facebook

Did you know that Uffington Parish Council has its own Facebook page?

In today's world of social media, as well as traditional routes the Parish Council posts news and articles on Facebook to reach a broader audience and provide an additional method of communicating information.

You can find the page at <https://facebook.com/uffentun>

Village Maintenance

Courier Deliver / Maintenance Volunteers.

Over the coming months to comply with UK GDPR the Council will be refreshing the current list of registered volunteers. If you would like to be included in this list, please email the Clerk (clerk@uffingtonparish.gov.uk) who will provide you with a registration form that is required for GDPR and insurance purposes.

Jubilee Field

Jubilee Field Tidy. The next Jubilee Field Tidy will be on Saturday 31st October 2026. The Field is in need of a good 'tidy' after the long hot summer. The main tasks will be to spread the piles of chippings to prevent the footpaths through the wooded area becoming muddy during the winter and to clear the fallen small branches and twigs from the grassed areas. We hope that by having it at the end of half term, more volunteers will be available. Do come along and help keep our most-used green space looking good. More details will be posted nearer the date.

Jubilee Field Path. Following interest from villagers, the Parish Council has decided to look in more detail at the options for a path on or around the Jubilee field. We would welcome any further comments or suggestions (to the Clerk please) as we start to look into the options available.

Hedges, Verges and Streams.

The Council would like to thank residents for maintaining their property boundaries and as we head into the 'wet' season would ask residents to ensure that all streams and drainage points are kept clear to avoid the risk of localised flooding.

Courier Magazine Advertising

Anybody wishing to advertise in the Courier should contact the Clerk by email at clerk@uffingtonparish.gov.uk . Copies of the Courier are distributed to several local shops, pubs and other outlets outside the UBW villages making it more attractive to advertisers. We would be pleased to learn of any errors, omissions, or any additional categories of advertisement you would like to see included in future editions.

Previous editions of the Courier can also be found on the website at <https://www.uffingtonparish.gov.uk/community/uffington-parish-council-20878/courier/> .

Planning Applications

Planning applications are published as they are received in the weekly newsletter and are reviewed monthly at Parish Council meetings.

A log of all applications can be found on the parish website at <https://www.uffingtonparish.gov.uk/community/uffington-parish-council-20878/planning-applications/> which is updated monthly.

The master reference for planning applications is held by the Vale of White Horse District Council and can be viewed at <https://www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/vale-of-white-horse-district-council/planning-and-development/planning-registers/planning-application-register/> .

Village Newsletter

It has been agreed that the system used for production of the weekly newsletter will be changing from 2027. This decision has been made due to a number of factors and details of how to register for the new system will be published over the coming months.

WHITE HORSE SHOW

Shelley Arnett

What a way to round off the summer show season! This year's White Horse Show featured incredible displays of motorbike stunts, formation dressage riding, falconry and heavy horses, and these were just a few of the exciting attractions on offer over the bank holiday weekend.

With entertainment for all ages, the show provides an exciting day out for thousands of visitors, but it's also a brilliant example of how a small community can come together to produce something quite special. With the proceeds being used to improve facilities in our local area and provide funding for things that enhance the lives of the people who live there, the White Horse Show is certainly something to be proud of. But without the support of so many people, the White

Horse Show would not exist. While the dedicated team on the organising committee work hard to bring the show together, it couldn't be done without the help of the wonderful people in our community. From the landowner, to the car park volunteers, the Uffington Players, who delighted visitors with their witty commentary, and the Beavers who help clear the site after the show, to name just a few, you all play an important part in making the show a success – thank you!

We are also very lucky to have a strong network of people who provide machinery, infrastructure and their time year on year to help set up the show ground, in particular, a huge thank you must go to Steve Willis and L.J and C.A Cannings for all their support.

If you represent a community service, club or similar within Uffington, Baulking, Kingston Lisle, Woolstone or Fawler, you might be eligible to apply for funding. To find out more, please visit the website at www.whitehorseshow.co.uk.

We're always looking for new members to join our organising committee, so if you'd like to be part of our small team of enthusiastic volunteers, please do get in touch at info@whitehorseshow.co.uk.

Thank you to everyone who came along to enjoy the show this year and we hope to welcome you back next year!

UFFINGTON COMMUNITY GARDEN

Heather Abel

What a hot, dry Summer! Sadly, all the care and attention we could muster could not keep our outside crops going but there's plenty to celebrate too!

We started the year with virtually full, rainwater storage tanks thanks to the foresight of our forebears and the generosity of village funding but unless the rain actually falls, we're in trouble! We have been very judicious in our watering, soil care and mulching but now we have run dry! Carrying water from home in containers and relying on the good will of neighbours has kept us going at least in the greenhouses. As one neighbour remarked, you can't let all that just die! And we couldn't. So we didn't.

On the plus side – wall to wall sunshine has been great for some of the more adventurous veg we have tried this year. We have managed to grow a heritage melon called Hero of Lockinge – yes, you read that correctly! Going back generations to a head gardener and now grown by yours truly from mercifully, saved seed. Keeping lesser-known varieties going, is part of our mission to 'future proof' our food security. At this rate, we are losing most of our biodiversity; having to rely on very few varieties of fruit and veg and consequently, more open to them being wiped out by various bugs, diseases and less favourable conditions.

More variety means more chance of success, as well as more interesting food too. What a year for delicious peppers, chillies, aubergines, cucumber and multi coloured tomatoes! Not all bad then!

Come and join us - Saturdays 2 – 4pm, behind the Fox and Hounds. Membership is free and no experience needed.

UFFINGTON TABLE TENNIS CLUB

Hilary Deakin

As we move into autumn, the table tennis club continues to meet on a Tuesday in the small hall between 6pm and 9pm moving into the main hall when available. Cost is £4 for adults and £2 for children, really good value. Our numbers remain good and we have two more regulars join us over the summer months. We would welcome new members of all ages, we are also planning a free taster session for under 16's date to be announced in October. We had a successful bbq in September and are planning a goulash evening in the autumn. Come and join us for great exercise and good chat.

As I write, the growing season is drawing gradually to a close - and what a challenging season it has been, with repeated heatwaves and drought conditions! Despite that, as I look around the allotments, I see excellent crops of root vegetables, onions and leeks, tomatoes sweetcorn and squash. The hard work of plot holders and those who have assisted with watering arrangements has paid good dividends.

The allotments have shown remarkable resilience this year, which fills us with confidence that we can deal with the conditions we are told to expect for next year and still produce great results.

There really has never been a better time to grow your own fruit and vegetables while getting plenty of exercise. We still have a small number of plots and half-plots available to let at the rate of £25 per year (£12.50 per half-plot). If you would like to discuss maybe joining our allotment community, please email clerk@uffingtonparish.gov.uk and we will be delighted to talk with you.

WHITE HORSE GARDENING CLUB

Hilary Deakin

After a long hot summer, the gardening club resumes with our autumn and winter calendar of talks. The full list of events is included in this edition of the Courier; however, the highlight will be Rachel de Thame of Gardeners World fame who will be our star speaker in October. Members can attend for free with non-members paying £10.00 – cash or card on the door so no need to book.

The club goes from strength to strength with nearly 100 members already signed up for the coming year. Subscriptions remain at £20 from September to August and members receive a 10% discount off plants at Bampton Garden Centre.

For 2027 we will be organising the Uffington Open Gardens again on the 13th June. If you are interested in opening your garden and welcoming the public, please contact Hilary Deakin – details below. We are looking for all types of gardens – large and small, formal and informal. Our visitors love to see a variety!

The gardening club is held on the 1st Thursday of every month excluding January and August, with visits organised for June and July. Meetings are held at Thomas Hughes Memorial Hall in Uffington from 7:30pm to approx. 9pm with plenty of parking available. The hall opens at 7pm and there is always a raffle.

For further information or a membership application form please contact Hilary at hilarydeakin@me.com or 07802 426822. Follow us on Facebook – Whitehorse Gardening Club and watch out for our new website coming soon.

Uffington Players

In 2027 the Uffington Players will be celebrating 50 years. Over this time, we have performed pantomimes, dramas, farces, music halls and murder mysteries. Over 500 people have been involved over the years.

We greatly appreciate everyone's continued support, particularly in this landmark year.

We are now starting to plan our next production for February 2027.

So, if you think you would like to be involved in this or future productions, in any shape or form, big or small, on stage or behind the scenes you will be VERY welcome.

If you would like further information, please contact Christine Holley email christineholley28@hotmail.co.uk

UBW MinibusHugh Baxter

As the new Chairman of the Minibus Association I have been reading the old minutes, not avidly - I do have a life - but enough to know that the names John Hatcher and Tom Scrivens have been associated with the minibus for decades.

So we have to thank them both for all their time and worry in keeping the minibus serving the community. Tony Osborne was cajoled into the team more recently but that does not mean his steady hand on the accounts was any less important.

If you are not familiar with the UBW minibus, this is the objective by which it serves you.

'The objective of the UBW Minibus Association is to provide community transport, when there is a need for such a service because of a lack of suitable public passenger services or where age infirmity or financial circumstances render these inappropriate, for the residents, permanent and temporary, of Uffington, Baulking, Woolstone, Fawler, Kingston Lisle, and the adjacent area and for affiliated 'not for profit' clubs groups associations corporate and statutory bodies and schools which include residents of the area amongst those who derive benefit from their activities.'

I write this page with a mixture of sadness and excitement. There comes a time for every vicar to move on and it will be a great wrench to leave here, for all the Goulstons. Uffington, Baulking, Woolstone and Shellingford are among the most beautiful villages I have known and are set in some of the most beautiful countryside in England. And what can rival the White Horse for a sense of place and history, or our churches either, not to mention the Cathedral of the Vale?

However, I have been thinking of a new challenge for a while, and we have found it in the shape of the Barton Benefice where I will be their new Rector. The Benefice comprises six unusual churches around the village of Middle Barton in the countryside between Oxford and Banbury. There is a village hall, a school and two pubs – sound familiar? Well, it is, and it isn't, in that no two places are the same!

The natives (church and otherwise) are friendly and there's even a cricket club where Esther might learn the craft which her father makes pretences of playing occasionally.

I have so been so well supported in Uffington Benefice by Churchwardens, Ministry Team, and you all that leaving, for us all, will not be easy. I have said to the Archdeacon that I would like to celebrate Christmas here and we will probably move soon afterwards.

I hope we have helped to give you something creative to build on here and feel that with our current Churchwardens (and any new ones in the offing) and the Ministry Team (with special thanks to Hugh, Beryl, Sue, Stephanie, Max and Tony) the future of the church in these parts is in very good hands.

I want to thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for the privilege of ministering amongst you these past eleven years. Be it a Baptism, a Wedding, a Funeral, a Pet Service, Quiz n Chips, Organ Recitals, White Horse Show Songs of Praise, Muddy Church with Duncan, Pantos, and all points in between – it has been a great journey to be on and I hope you too have had chances to encounter Christ here in unusual ways as we Goulstons have.

Helen, Esther, Gwen and Woody all join with me in sending you all our love, and if you are ever in our new area – come and surprise us! Every blessing on you and yours.

Jeremy.

Myths, Monuments and Memory

As part of this year's exhibition 'Myths, Monuments & Memory', we have been collecting stories and memories from visitors to help capture the significance and impact of this wonderful landscape. Thank you very much to everyone who has contributed so far!

We have had some wonderful responses so far and a project is in the works to continue to showcase and preserve these memories after the end of the exhibition. So, if you have not yet shared your memories, please get in touch. What we are looking for (you do not need to answer them all!)

- What does the landscape of the Uffington White Horse mean to you?
- What memories do you have of this landscape? This may include celebrations or events you have attended or simply going for walks.
- Are there any local legends and stories you have heard of?

How you can contribute:

- Visit the museum before the exhibition finishes at the end of October and fill out one of the comment cards.
- Email your memories and stories to us at uffingtonmuseum@gmail.com
- Fill in our online form: <https://forms.gle/vreFsdcyYvmymHEE9>

We are open every weekend 2-5pm and Bank Holiday Mondays from now until the last weekend in October.

Monthly Talks in Thomas Hughes Memorial Hall, Uffington at 7.30pm £5, £3 Friends

The Landscape Detective – 12th October

Have you ever wondered why a road bends the way it does, or why a field has those curious lumps and bumps? Using examples from across the Vale of White Horse, our very own Jane Golding will guide us on a journey through landscapes shaped by people over time, helping us uncover the rich stories they hold. Enjoy discovering their secrets as we explore, ask questions of the landscape, and unravel clues to its past!

John Aubrey – Wiltshire's First Trowel Blazer – 9th November

John Aubrey (1626-1697) is best known as a polymathic antiquarian with a deep interest in the supernatural. Yet Aubrey was a scientist too and often combined his curiosity for folk wisdom and the unexplained with revolutionary scientific insights.

Dr Louise Ryland-Epton invites us to discover more about Aubrey's extraordinary world in this his 400th anniversary year, and in celebration of her publication of his Natural History in full for the first time.

Our upcoming talks and recordings of past talks are available to view on our website <https://www.uffingtonmuseum.co.uk/talks.html>. You can also refer to the timetable printed in the Courier.

Small Changes, Big Difference - Exploring a More Neurodivergent-Friendly Museum.

Museums are places where everyone can feel welcome, comfortable and inspired. With support and funding from Museum Development South East we are creating a Visual Story to improve our visitor experience. After a kick-off neurodivergent awareness session, we are now engaging with our community to hear their thoughts on specific measures to make visiting easier, which we'll go on to include in the final Visual Story.

MYTHS, MONUMENTS & MEMORY

UFFINGTON MUSEUM, SN7 7RA

Our 2026 exhibition explores the myths and legends woven into the Uffington White Horse landscape, from Saint George and the Dragon to the story of Weland the Smith. It highlights how this landscape and its monuments have carried significance from prehistory to the present day.

Discover how reuse in the landscape has conveyed meaning over the centuries, how beliefs have endured, and how personal, family and community events continue to enrich this story.

Open 2-5pm every Saturday, Sunday and Bank Holiday
Monday from Easter to end of October

As part of this exhibition, we are collecting community memories of local legends and personal stories connected with the Uffington White Horse landscape.

Share your story through our online form or by contacting us at uffingtonmuseum@gmail.com
