ACKLINGTON PARISH COUNCIL COMPLAINTS POLICY

FORMAL COMPLAINTS ABOUT THE COUNCIL OR DECISIONS

5.1 Complaints about a decision, the general operations of the Council or the Council as a body should be made to the Parish Clerk in writing, providing any additional information that will enable the complaint to be investigated.

5.2 The complaint shall first be considered by the Parish Clerk and Chairman who shall seek to resolve the issue or explain the background to the decision.

5.3 Should it not be possible to resolve the complaint, it shall be referred to Full Council. The complainant shall be invited to address the Council to outline the background to the complaint.

5.4 Records shall be kept detailing all complaints, actions undertaken and the outcome.

VEXATIOUS COMPLAINTS

6.1 A vexatious complainant is one who persists unreasonably with their complaints, or makes complaints in order to inconvenience the Council rather than genuinely resolve an issue. This may include making serial complaints about different issues or continuing to raise the same or similar matters repeatedly.

6.2 If such complaints affect the Council's ability to undertake its work and provide its services to others, it may alter the way it deals with complaints by not acknowledging or responding to vexatious complaints. Complaints will still be read in case they contain new information.

6.3 If a complainant is to be classified as vexatious they shall be informed so and given a timescale of how long this will remain the case.

6.4 Should a vexatious complainant make a new complaint about new issues these will be treated on their merits.
