Department of Health & Social Carein Latest Updates & Advice

What you need to know about your COVID-19 vaccination appointment

When it's your turn to have the coronavirus (COVID-19) vaccine, you'll get a letter, phone call, email or text inviting you for an appointment. Here's what you need to know about what will happen at your appointment. More information can also be found here.

Pre-Appointment Arrival Pre-Vaccination Exit Vaccination 0 When you are eligible for You will be greeted by You will be asked some You will receive the injection You will be given a leaflet vaccination, you will be someone who will check that questions about your medical into your upper arm about what to expect after contacted directly your vaccination to take home you do not have symptoms history, asked to give consent Depending on which vaccine to have the vaccination and that would prevent you having with you You will receive a letter or you receive, you may be a vaccination and direct you to have the opportunity to ask phone call/ text message to asked to wait for 15 minutes You will be given a record card the next stage any questions schedule appointment after having the vaccination and your next appointment will If you are booked in to a large All places that offer be in the period up to 12 You may be invited to have This is to protect against the vaccination centre, you will vaccinations will have all weeks after your first your vaccination at hospital, unlikely event that you have need to bring your booking preventative measures in vaccination and in the same large vaccination centre, GP an allergic reaction to the reference number which will place around COVID-19. It is location as your first dose practice, pharmacy or other vaccination. This is very rare be on your letter expected that everyone will be local site and the team will be trained to Keep your record card safe observing social distancing in If you are a health or care deal with any reactions and and make sure you attend the waiting areas and you will You may receive multiple worker, you will need to bring treat them immediately, if you your next appointment be expected to wear a face invitations and can choose the some proof - e.g. work ID card feel unwell for any reason after covering site that works best for you Following vaccination, you or letter from employer your vaccination you should let must continue to follow the staff know government COVID-19 rules and guidance

Vaccination user journey