

Battle Town Council 1066 Writing Competition

Notes from Cllrs Davies, Gyngell and Favell, following a meeting of the Writing Competition Working Group on 06 July 2021

Title

The suggestions below had been submitted to ER&TD and Members left it to the Working Group to decide the title.

I Never Thought ...

Once upon a time

Next Year

Walking through Battle Cemetery

How did it happen?

The Day it Changed

Gunpowder!

Going different ways

Looking out from Senlac Hill

And the birds sang again

The Old Mine Workings

It was agreed that the title for 2021 should be And the birds sang again. It was felt that it should result in uplifting writing.

It is recommended that the following titles should be placed on the list for consideration next year:

I Never Thought ...

The Day it Changed

Gunpowder!

Rules

It was agreed that the rules amended for 2020 should apply this year. They will be updated accordingly and forwarded to the BTC office.