9. SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION OF 2014-15 BUSINESS

i. MEMBERS' ATTENDANCE

The clerk had prepared a table showing members' attendances at the meetings of the previous year, 2014-15. This was accepted by the meeting to be a true and accurate record.

ii. FINANCIAL STATEMENT

The clerk had prepared a final statement of receipts and payments for the financial year 2014-15. This was accepted by the meeting to be a true and accurate record. However, it was not clear what 'election re-charge' referred to in the record of payments made by the previous clerk. Ms. S. Young agreed to contact Mr. A. Ferriday to clarify the matter.

10. PROVISION FOR 2015-16 BUSINESS

i. STANDING AGENDA ITEMS

Councillors decided that all current agenda items would remain.

ii. DIARY OF MEETINGS

The meeting decided that the number of monthly meetings should remain at six. They will be held on the 'odd' months of the year, on the second Thursday of each month, commencing at 7.30 p.m. Therefore the next meeting will be in July 2015. The venue will continue to be Norton Village Hall.

The parish council continued to reserve the right to amend the meetings calendar as it sees fit.

iii. FINANCE

The figure allocated to each of the local charitable causes listed hereunder increased to £75, there were no other requests. Mr. R. Hotchkiss declared an interest in St. Mary's Church, Sutton Maddock.
