

- 01 Steel exo-skeleton structure provides support for new roof to converted garage area and extends roof to entrance area forming entrance colonnade
- 02 External painted timber cladding creates a unified external appearance across the ground floor fixing the mixture in brickwork from various times
- 03 Photovoltaic panels to new garage roof provides sustainable energy
- 04 Projecting glass oriel window creates slot transition between volumes and is 'held' together by exposed external framework

- ① Cladding to dining nook volume matches material to garage and cinema block unifying the whole ground floor
- ② Replacement roofing material fixes leaking roof and improves environmental performance

Brickwork with unifying timber 'framework'

Historic brick with modern timber framework

Brickwork with timber 'framework'

