

Collier Street Magazine Annual Report

Collier Street News continues to be edited by Jacki Fogg and Emma Howard. Tracey Bentley has now left the village and no longer deals with advertising and finance. Jacki Fogg has, therefore, taken on this role.

The magazine is produced bi-monthly and is funded entirely by revenue from advertisements which just covers the cost of printing. There is a very small buffer but if printing costs are increased this will soon be used.