Terms and Conditions of Sale of Exclusive Right of Burial

1. The Burial Ground, each grave space and cremated remains plot within are the property of Abbots Ann Parish Council. Ownership of the ground does not, at any time, pass from the control of the council.
2. The exclusive right of burial is purchased for a period not exceeding 30 years.
3. The council will issue a formal Deed of Grant of Exclusive Right of Burial for each plot and this together with the Burial Ground Regulations and these Terms shall form the contract between the council and purchaser(s).
4. The Exclusive Right of Burial entitles the registered holder(s) to:
 - a. Be buried in the grave or plot (subject to space being available)
 - b. Authorise burials in the grave or plot (subject to space being available)
 - c. Apply for an additional inscription to the memorial stone in the Garden of Remembrance
5. An Exclusive Right of Burial will be issued in the names of up to three people.
6. No interment may take place within a plot and no inscription may be added to the memorial stone without the written consent of the registered owner(s) of the Exclusive Right of Burial of that plot.
 - a. Each registered owner of the Exclusive Right of Burial may be interred in the plot without the consent of the other registered owner(s) (subject to space being available)
 - b. The consent of all registered owners will be required to enable an inscription to be added to the memorial stone or to permit the interment in the plot of any other person.
7. The Burial Ground Regulations stipulate what is and is not permitted on a plot.
8. The ownership of the Exclusive Right of Burial may be transferred during the owners' lifetime or after death. This is subject to registration with the council, the endorsement of the deed of grant and payment of the appropriate transfer fee.
9. Possession of the Deed of Grant of Exclusive Right of Burial in itself does not prove ownership of the exclusive rights. The ownership of the Exclusive Right of Burial belongs to the purchaser(s) as registered with the council at the time of the sale of the right or following the registered transfer of ownership.
10. It is the responsibility of the owner(s) of the Exclusive Right of Burial to inform the council of any change of address or their intention to transfer ownership of the right.
