

Private Walter Dawson 34774

Walter was born in Kneeton in 1893 to father Joseph and mother Lavinia.

In 1901 he was aged 8 and living in Kneeton.

By 1911 Walter was a Butchers Apprentice living in Radcliffe On Trent.

He was killed in action on 16th September 1916 serving with the Notts. and Derby Sherwood Foresters 9th Battalion. His name is on the Thiepval Memorial in the Somme, France.

No Gunthorpe connection has yet been found.