

Frome Shed March Newsletter 2025

A child at the Taunton Selworthy School enjoying grooming the rocking horse made by the Frome Shed.

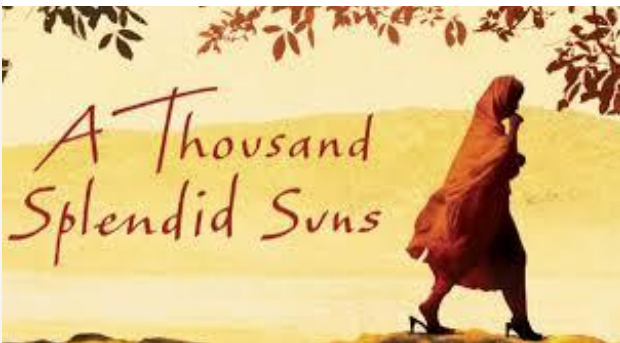

On Tuesday 18th March, Pauline Bucknall and John Corfield will be on Frome FM talking about what the Frome Shed does. If you can please tune in between 11:45 and 13:00 and give them your support, that would be good.

Three sorts of joints (above), samples used by Gary to teach the Wednesday Woodworkers.

The Frome Masons have very generously given us a £250 donation. This is a very welcome boost to our funds.

The next book club session is on Monday 7th April. The book being discussed is A Thousand Splendid Suns by Khaled Hossieni. This is a story about two Afghan women. All Shedders are welcome. This is the same day as our coffee morning.

This year's annual Coffee Morning will be in aid of the Childrens' Hospice South West. It will be on Monday 7th April. All Shedders and their guests are welcome to attend and buy some cake and raffle tickets for a very good cause. This is the same day as the book club chat.

Thanks to John Philp and Steve Gray for putting the replacement blades on to the planer / thicknesser in the machine room. This has saved the Shed a considerable amount of money. Thank you, gents.
