VICTORY!

THE ASSEMBLED SCOREBOARDS — THE NUMBERS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES!

IN AN UNPRECEDENTED WAVE OF TRIUMPH, the Ladies vs Men competition on Saturday 8th of August saw the not-so-Gentle Sex romp home across the Green, vanquishing the Men almost entirely in what was exceptional summer heat and in difficult conditions (according to almost all of the Men).

IN THE AFTERMATH, despite an unfortunate and surely accidental mix-up with one scoreboard upsetting the overall result, quickly resolved after an interjection (described by one startled onlooker as “a near-riot”) from the Ladies, all Teams retired to the Clubhouse for a Buffet Tea, where enmities and rivalries were resolved amicably, after which the Men (despite an already tiring and trying afternoon) were dutifully dispatched to the kitchen, there to relearn together the ancient art of household chores.

DAZED AND CONFUSED — COMING IN SECOND PLACE, AND SENTENCED TO THE WASHING-UP
