Complaint about the odour from the above, see attached strongly worded email.

Friday 1st May - filthy TT stink all over Misson including my garden this afternoon.

9.28am Newington today, time as of email. The odour from tunnel tech is very very strong. Pulled over to write this email, but had to move because the odour invades the house. The stench is so bad today that I had to re wash my washing that was hung on the clothes line as the stench seemed you stick to the items!

Friday evening, from @ 7.30pm onwards I have had to close my doors and windows as the odour from tunnel tech is nauseating

Sat 9th May - another lovely day ruined by filthy vile TT stench all day.

I feel compelled to add my voice to the number of countless others in regards to the above companies plant at Newington. The stench from the plant on the 17th of May was Out in the garden - awful pong coming over from Tunnel Tech. It's breezy so we as usual get it.
at approximately 12.50 the pollution from the TTN factory

Sunday 17 May - early morning TT stench yet again spoiling another nice day

Mon 18 May - another day ruined with the vile TT stench just after 2pm & lasting hours - I had to leave outdoor community work because of the stench, one could not breathe.
Another day in Misson when the stinking pollution of Tunnel Tech North has been disgusting. I wanted to spend the day in the garden but was once again driven in

It was bad at around 9.30 but it is overwhelming at the moment.

Thurs 21 May - vile TT stink this morning

I am sending this email to report the disgusting smell coming from newington farm (tunnel tech) as usual cannot open windows or put out washing.

Particularly bad this morning despite the strong wind. Seems to have abated this afternoon

4.23pm bank holiday Monday. The obnoxious smell from the above named company is wafting through the air again.

Another beautiful bank holiday spoilt by the smell from tunnel tech at newington farm.

The stench emanating from Tunnel Tech in the early hours of this morning reached new levels. It was nauseating & caused me to wretch! Was a hot night so keep windows closed.
The stench coming from Tunnel Tech right now is absolutely appallingly disgusting. No windows are open - it's impossibly dangerous at night - but we could smell it

It's 5.00 am. As soon as I woke up I could smell Tunnel Tech in the house. I opened the window to check & the stench outside is so strong it's unbelievable. Once again
Extremely bad sewage smell in the garden, had to abandon a bbq in the garden, been smelling it for 20 years but all last week it was bad on and off when the wind was from the west.
Sunday 31st May - vile TT stench whilst trying to have (& enjoy) a daily walk during lockdown...not much chance of that! 3 complaints from my household.
