Mrs Godfrey, Mr Bevans, Mrs Todd, Cllr Laughton

Present

Chairman Mr Bust, Mr Paris, Mrs Herbert, Mrs. Simmonds, clerk Mr P Rickett
Cllrs Jackson and Rainbow

Minutes of the previous meeting were signed as a true record

Cllr Jackson spoke first as he had another meeting to attend
The 20 MPH is going ahead on 5 approaches to the school – unenforceable
The new boundaries have been settled we now fall in the Muskham and Farnsfield area
Cllr Jackson will follow up the water at the top of Radley Road, as the landowners have cleared all the ditches that Highways requested, but nothing more seems to have been done
The largest potholes on Halam Hill have been done

Village Hall

The Dance club will not be starting in January – await more information
Race night will be held Friday 12th January 2016
The new speaker was found to be damaged – this has been exchanged
Clerk to contact the electrician to repair 3 overhead and 2 storage heaters as the floor needs keeping dry – contact the Chairman depending on the cost
The Chairman thanked all those who helped at the Harvest Supper
Mr Bevan to be asked to contact hall users past and present for support to go towards the grant application – replies direct to Mrs. Godfrey
Mrs Thompson to be invited to the next meeting as a Village Hall committee member, so that the committee's role and function can be discussed. The meeting that Mrs Herbert and Mrs Simmonds attended raised the matter of insurance cover for committees that have the public as members

Roads and hedges

Clerk asked to contact highways to get the gully cleaned out on School Lane

Open meeting

Mrs Simmonds spoke about the topic of devolution which was on the agenda at the NALC meeting – Nottingham and Derby will be put together and there is talk of an elected mayor – clerk to contact the speaker and ask if they will come to the Parish Meeting
