

Latest updates from Dorset Council

Results for Littlemoor and Preston by-election announced

People have voted and the results are in for the January 2024 by-elections.

The results for the Dorset Council Littlemoor and Preston ward, with 30.79 per cent turnout, are as follows:

- Steve Brown, Labour Party - 232 votes
- Simon Clifford, Liberal Democrats - 833 votes
- Peter Dickenson, Local Conservatives - 1237 votes

Peter Dickenson was duly elected, but declined to take up the post. The seat will therefore remain vacant until the election on 2 May.

The results of the Weymouth Town Council Preston ward, with 39.64 per cent turnout, are as follows:

Steve Brown, Labour Party - 100 votes
Simon Clifford, Liberal Democrats - 610 votes
Joanna Dickenson, Local Conservatives - 959 votes

Therefore, Joanna Dickenson is duly elected.

The next planned elections (for Dorset Council, town and parish councils in the Dorset Council area and the Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner) take place on Thursday 2 May 2024.

Is your gas hob safe?

Dorset Council Trading Standards is helping the Office of Product Safety and Standards (OPSS) to ensure your gas hob needs work to make it safe.

As a result of an investigation by OPSS it was found that 12 UK gas hob manufacturers may have a fault in their gas hob elbow joints that could lead to a serious risk of poisoning, burns or gas explosion and/or fire.

OPSS has asked the public to check whether their gas hob requires corrective action.

Young people in Dorset learn to climb high

As part of the Holiday Activities and Food programme, Dorset Council's Weymouth Outdoor Education Service ran festive and adventurous activities for children and young people aged 8 to 16 during the Christmas holidays.

These sessions took place at Tout Quarry on Portland and provided enriching and memorable experiences for children; encouraging outdoor exploration, teamwork, and holiday spirit.

The initiative aims to ensure all local children and young people have the opportunity to get involved with enriching holiday activities and enjoy nutritious meals.

Active travel survey ends 18 January

There is still time to give us your thoughts on which routes are important to you and what needs changing to help you get more active.

We want to make it easier for more people to gain the benefit of active travel, whether walking, cycling, or wheeling (using a wheelchair, mobility scooter or similar aid).

Everyday trips like getting to and from school, commuting to work, visiting town centres or enjoying the local area, are a great way to be physically active while doing routine activities.
