The girl chorister section of Exeter Cathedral Choir was founded by Stephen Tanner in 1994. In addition to the regular round of service singing, the girls have appeared in numerous concerts, broadcasts and recordings and have toured in the USA and many countries across Europe.

Unlike the girl choristers at most other cathedrals, the Exeter girls leave the choir at the age of thirteen. In 2008, Stephen Tanner decided to create an opportunity for former girl choristers to continue singing together and "Isca Voices" was born.

After some four years as cathedral choristers, the girls are very experienced performing musicians both vocally and instrumentally. Isca Voices aims to perform not only from the vast wealth of religious choral music from across the centuries but also to sing music from the folk, jazz and popular repertoires in close harmony.

Over the last two years we have been delighted to welcome former Exeter boy choristers into the group not only to sing lower parts but also as "The Isca Band" to add an instrumental dimension to our concerts.

The last two summers have seen Isca Voices expand yet further to include adult singers on tours to Paris and Rome performing in prestigious venues including La Cathédrale Notre Dame and La Madeleine in Paris and St Peter's Basilica in Rome.
