

To mark the first annual Day of Action for Nature, professional ecologist and Thruxton resident Sally Hayns will give a free talk

In Defence of Nature

Sally's talk will look at the history of nature conservation in the UK, how nature benefits us all, why nature needs us and what we can do to help.

Everyone welcome!
Saturday 18th April
Thruxton Memorial Hall
4.30 – 5.30p.m