A musical celebration of village life

The Pocket Choral Society

'A CAPPELLA'

A cappella band from the elusive village of Pocket, writing and singing songs about food, trees, life and raffles, along with new arrangements of Lennon & McCartney, Flanders & Swann and Louis Armstrong. Lots of laughter, topical songs and improvised singing.

Four experienced unaccompanied singers touring Britain and bringing harmony one village at a time.

"Tom Lehrer crossed with The Bonzo Dog Doo-Dah Band"

"captivated by their seamless
harmonies, inventive songwriting, and infectious laughter"

"They were much funnier than I thought they would be!"
